MRS. JAMES H. HALL.

Maysville Losses By Death This Noble Christian Woman.

It will be learned with deepest regret that the death of Mrs. James H. Hall occurred at 6:22 o'clock last evening at her home on West Third street.

Mrs. Hall had been ill the past two weeks, but it was hoped that with careful attention she would soon be restored to her health.

She was one of Maysville's best Christian women, a devoted member of the Baptist Church and one always ready to lend her assistance to a noble cause.

Her death is a loss, not only to the family circle she leaves, but to the entire community.

Mrs. Hall is survived by her mother, husband and two children—Mr. James H. Hall, Jr., and Mrs. Carroll Marshall of Huntington, W. Va.

The time for the funeral has not been set, but it will take place from the family home on West Third street, with services by Rev. J. W. Porter of the First Baptist Church.

SHOOTING AT MAYSICK.

James Doran Shot Henry Willet Yesterday Morning.

Mayslick was the scene of a shooting scrape yesterday.

James Doran, white, of Flemingsburg, got into an argument with Henry Willet, colored, porter at the Hotel de Young, and it is said, because of Willet's impudence Doran put a plunk of lead into him.

Willet's wound is not considered dangerous.

POLICEMAN WALLACE LOST.

Suit Against Him in Circuit Court Decided For Plaintiff.

Darius Moran some time ago brought suit in the Mason Circuit Court against Policeman John P. Wallace for assault and battery, claiming in his petition that Officer Wallace had struck him with a club while endeavoring to arrest him—and strange to say, all for nothing.

The case came up for trial at the February term of the Circuit Court, and yesterday a jury rendered a verdict, finding the officer $50 and costs.

Several reputable witnesses who saw the alleged assault swore that Officer Wallace acted purely in defense of his own person, as Moran was very unruly.

There is no question in the minds of all fair-minded people of this city who heard the evidence that the verdict was unjust in the extreme, and it only goes to show what our police force, under the guidance of our worthy Mayor and Chief of Police, has to contend with in trying to enforce the law and keep down lawlessness.

Candy Straws at Traxel's.

Fleming county Democrats will hold their primary May 19th.

There will be a live pigeon shoot at the Maysville Fairgrounds this afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock.

Portmouth Blade: "Dick" Dawson, the artistic brick-layer of Maysville, says he loves his native state of Kentucky, but he is heartily tired of their scrapping. He prefers the Ohio system of politics. Dick says: "Kentucky is a mighty fine state, and if she would only get down to business and cut out her scrapping, she'd be a garden of Eden, sub; a garden of Eden."

Mr. John J. Broese, who died at his home in this city yesterday, had in his possession an honorable discharge from the U. S. Army signed by Abraham Lincoln, something no other veteran South of the Ohio river had. It is on parchment, and Mr. Broese prized it very highly. Mr. H. C. Dickerson, Charleston, W. Va., 10 hounds.

ONLY THE NEWS.

That's What You Get When You Take The Ledger.

Yesterday's LEDGER contained the following brief telegram:

CRONJE GIVES UP.

He Surrenders Himself and His Entire Force Unconditionally to Lord Roberts.

London, Feb. 27.—The war office has received the following dispatch from Lord Roberts:

"Paardeberg, Feb. 27.—7:45 a. m.—Gen. Cronje and all of his force capitulated unconditionally at daylight and is now a prisoner in my camp. The strength of his force will be communicated later. I hope that her majesty's government will consider this event satisfactory, occurring as it does on the anniversary of Majuba."

It was to be found in no other paper published within a radius of 1,000 miles of this city before noon, and because of this, some people doubted its truth; but when you see it in THE LEDGER stake your money on it.

THE LEDGER's telegraph service cannot be equalled by any other paper on earth.

A BIG SCARE.

Several Ladies Frightened Almost Out of Their Wits Yesterday.

Yesterday at noon, while pedestrians and busy people of all kinds, classes and conditions were on their way to dinner, and when several of the lady clerks of a big downtown store were passing the Masonic Temple, there was a sudden crash as if some large building was falling, and it kept on crashing and crashing.

The ladies became so frightened that it was impossible to run, while they thought to stand meant instant death, and all they could do was to summon up what courage they had left and begin grinning—one of those silly grins that caused their faces to resemble that old 30 cents that has been talked of so much.

Finally they "got their wind and wits" and "sheered off towards the curb, all the time wondering what the good Lord had turned loose on Mother Earth.

They looked up, but could see nothing.

They looked around, but could see nothing save several other badly scared people scampering away towards a haven of safety.

All of a sudden the crash crashed, and then the silence was so thick that great chunks of it were cut off by the laughing maidens, who but a few minutes before had almost been scared from under their bonnets.

The cause of the crash was the ice in the large spouting leading from the Temple, which had become loosed by the warm weather and had slid down to the sewer.

Does It Pay To Buy Cheap?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Roscoe's German Syrup." It not only soothes and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. The claim of other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimonial of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardiner, Me. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the Drugstore of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by J. Jas. Wood & Son.
